GRANT IN RACE FOR PRESIDENCY

Returns From Tour of South and West Pleased With Outlook.

NEW YORK, March 5 .- After returning from an extended speechmaking tour of the South and West, during which time he was able to feel the pulse of the Democratic voters of that section st. nounced his prospective candidacy as Democratic nominee for President In an interview Mr. Grant expressed

In an interview Mr. Grant expressed himself as believing that his following was sufficiently strong to enable him running for the Democratic candidacy.

"You know," he said, "I had quite a send-off when I was down there and there was a clamor for my candidacy. I did not want to get carried off my feet so I would not give them any answer until my return to New York, 'desired to discuss the matter with friends and obtain their views on the matter."

Mr. Grant said his election to the Presidency would mean a return to the more conservative form of government. He would not, he said, endeavor to usurp the function of the legislative and judical bodies or strive "to rule this country with one form of government. He would bow, he said, to the will of Congress and fearlessly strive to execute their laws.

Mr. Grant was asked if his teams.

Mr. Grant was asked if his name would be offered at the Democratic convention at Denver.

In reply he averred that it would, but confessed himself unable to tell who would suggest it. His name will be offered by one of a strong delegation, he said.

In conclusion, Mr. Grant said that he had been assured of the support of Samuel Gompers, leader of the American Federation of Labor, and Charles F. Murphy, of Tammany Hall.

"I takee put on glave-glave of my filend." said the Chinaman.
"He! ho!" laughed the sailor; "and when do you expect your friend to come up and eat it?" John was silent a moment and then replied, "All time samee your fliend come up and smellee your flowers."—Woman's Companion.

FASHION TIP.

Women of the Ivory Coast in Africa-lengthen their necks by wearing iron rings. Every year they put a new ring round the neck, which they can stretch so far that it is nothing unusual to find it as long as the face.
